Greetings from Solid Rock

Hello, my brothers and sisters I pray that this finds you all blessed and doing great and staying safe. I want to let you know that there are people out here that are praying for you and your family. We're praying for all of you, and your salvation and that you will have a close relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. I want to thank you all for letting me know that you want to hear from us again. Please keep "Mee Mee," in your prayers while she is having her treatments. And thanks to all of you who have sent in names and poems, etc. If there is anything you want to see in this news letter please let me know; as long as it is about you, your family, Jesus, and our church. Keep it clean...please pray for me as I do this with the help of Jesus.

Cells of Prayer

Prayer is foundational for us at Solid Rock. You are in our prayers, but we need your help to pray for these people every day. We believe ministry is shared. Thank you for sharing ministry with us.

Behind the Walls

Dear God,

I am so glad You are patient, and right now I wish I were too. This problem has deeply affected my family--the very people I ought to have the most patience with. When some-thing doesn't go smoothly with them. I become entirely too short-tempered and short sighted. I've also become irritable with coworkers who can't seem to accomplish their tasks quickly enough or flawlessly enough to please me. I care about these people, but You wouldn't know it by the way I've been behaving toward them. If that's not bad enough. I actually became upset with a fax machine recently because I thought it should work faster.

But the worst part of all is that I have grown impatient with You. Dear God, I'm ashamed to say it, but it's true. There are certain elements of my life and myself I want big changes in. I have prayed hard about them, but everything remains the same. I want my life to change yesterday rather than tomorrow, and I want my troubles to go away immediately and to take my weaknesses with them.

Now, I'm simply praying for patience, and not just normal everyday patience, But the heavenly kind--the kind that says I love my family, friends, and coworkers, the kind that allows myself to make mistakes and the time to transform character flaws. I especially desire the kind that waits on You with total trust and confidence. Dear God, in other words. I want a patience like Yours.
